Village Parking Incident

Thank you for your cooperation yesterday. We would just like to remind parents that the walking bus meets at the village hall car park every morning and leaves at 8:40am. Parents who are busy are able to leave their children at the walking bus, were they can be escorted down to school by the walking bus volunteers.
Also the Police will be carrying on with patrolling the village next term.

Hats & Sun Cream

At the beginning of next term, please could all children ensure they have a sun hat and sun cream as hopefully we may have some great weather!
